Manuscript No.: _____

The author(s) hereby affirms that the manuscript entitled:

is original, that all statements asserted as facts are based on author(s) careful investigation and research for accuracy, that the manuscript does not, in whole or part, infringe any copyright or violate any right of privacy or other personal or property right whatsoever, that it has not been published in total or in part and is not being submitted or considered for publication in total or in part elsewhere, and that author(s) has full power and authority to enter into this copyright assignment and to make the grants herein contained.

In signing this form, each author acknowledges that he/she participated in the work in a substantive way and is prepared to take public responsibility for the work. If the above statement cannot be certified, justification for duplicate publication and permission to republish copyrighted material must be included with the covering letter. Please include a statement declaring any commercial relationships that may pertain to this paper.

In signing this form, each author further affirms that he or she has read and understands the "Ethical Guidelines for Publication of Research" and consents to the investigation of any improprieties or violations thereof that may be alleged. Each author further releases and holds harmless The Endocrine Society from any claim or liability that may arise therefrom.

The author(s), in consideration of the acceptance of the above work for publication, does hereby assign and transfer to The Endocrine Society all of the rights and interest in and to the copyright of the above titled work in its current form and in any form subsequently revised for publication and/or electronic dissemination and does hereby appoint The Endocrine Society to obtain all right, title, and interest to the copyright for the above titled work.

Publication Charge Agreement: The undersigned agree to honor publication charges as outlined in the Instructions to Authors if the manuscript is published.

The Journals are copyrighted by The Endocrine Society to protect The Society and authors from unauthorized use of its contents. The Society grants to authors the royalty-free right of republication in any work of which they are the author or editor, subject only to giving proper credit in the work to the original publication of the article by The Endocrine Society. Therefore, authors do not need to contact The Endocrine Society office to request permission to reproduce their work.

All authors must sign in the order in which each is listed in the authorship. Authors may submit copies of this document independently if they are located at different institutions, but authors signing independently must sign on the line that reflects their authorship placement.

Author Disclosure Statement Instructions (7 July 2008)

In accordance with the policies and procedures established by The Endocrine Society by the Ethics Advisory Committee: Ethical Aspects of Conflicts of Interests (http://www.endo-society.org/ethics/upload-/coi\_guideline.pdf), all journals published by The Endocrine Society require that each author disclose any potential financial conflicts of interest before a paper is published in Endocrinology, Molecular Endocrinology, The Journal of Clinical Endocrinology and Metabolism, or Endocrine Reviews.

The disclosure of this information is to identify openly any relationships current or during the past 2 years with companies that make or supply products or services related to the subject matter of the paper and other financial and non-financial interests. With full disclosure, the editors and readers can make informed decisions about submitted and printed papers in the journals.

Please note:

- The corresponding author must ensure that all authors sign and submit the Author Disclosure form.
- The corresponding author must also summarize the disclosures in a paragraph that will appear in the published article, indicating whether there are any disclosures or not. (See instructions below.)
- This summary will appear in the PDF of accepted papers on The Endocrine Society journals Rapid Electronic Publication sites and in the printed journal. Final acceptance is contingent on the inclusion of the summary and on the receipt of all signed forms at the editorial office.

Instructions for Author Disclosure Summary:

Briefly collate all information regarding conflicts directly related to the material being published from the individual author summaries. Use the format: Author's initials, then category, then company name. Relevant categories include "has nothing to declare", "is employed by", "was previously employed by", "consults for", "has previously consulted for", "has served as an expert witness for", "received lecture fees from", "has equity interests in", "received grant support (dates) from", "is an inventor on (country)(patent number)", "receives royalties from". Authors may also add other pertinent categories.

EXAMPLES:

1. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT: AZ, BY, and CX have nothing to declare. DW was previously employed by Hormone Pharma and has equity interests in Secretary Devices, Inc... EV is a consultant for Endo Experts, LLC. FX received lecture fees from Gland Enterprises. GT is an inventor on U.S. Patent 000-111-2222.
2. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT: The authors have nothing to disclose.

The Endocrine Society Journals: Disclosure Statement (7 July 2008)

FAX COMPLETED FORM TO 301-951-2617

This form should be completed after reading the accompanying: Author Disclosure Statement Instructions. Before a revised manuscript can be processed, each author is required to identify all relationships within the last 2 years if they are relevant to the topic of the manuscript. A relationship is “relevant” if the relationship or interest relates to the topic of the manuscript in terms of any of the following: the same or similar subject matter or topic; the same, similar, or competing drug or device, product, or service, intellectual property, or asset; a drug or device company or its competitor; or has the reasonable potential to result in financial, professional, or other personal gain or loss for you, members of your household, or employer. Each author must complete this form, indicating if you and/or a household member (defined as someone with whom you share income or assets) have any involvement with the entities listed below, and if so, its character and financial dimensions. Write a Yes/No answer to each category. For positive responses, list all applicable entities, describe the relationship, and categorize its magnitude as $0, <$10K, or >=$10K. Further information about potential conflicts of interest can be found in the journal’s Instructions to Authors, available through the journal’s Web site. (Select journal at <http://www.endojournals.org/>)

Please insert brief explanatory information describing each relationship in each category in the table below.
